TIPS FROM THE TEAM

New Caledonia is one of Australia's nearest neighbours. This beautiful French island territory offers a fascinating combination of sophisticated French style and cuisine alongside the friendly, laid-back culture of the Pacific Islands. It is a country that appeals to the senses; full of rich colours, extraordinary flavours, and sounds as diverse as its landscape and people. Musical group "Crooked Colours" are among those to have followed their adventurous spirits on a journey into the heart of the Pacific, where they immersed themselves in the everyday sights and sounds of these unique islands.

Fly Aircalin from Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane to Nouméa in a maximum flight time of three-and-a-half hours. Explore Nouméa and the island of Grande Terre, the Isle of Pines and the four Loyalty Islands of Lifou, Ouvéa, Maré and Tiga.

New Caledonia is blessed with stunning natural wonders, including a UNESCO World Heritage site and the largest lagoon in the world. Do not miss the Heart of Voh, a heart shape formed by Mother Nature. There is so much to do in New Caledonia!

French paradise at your doorstep.

TRAVEL TIPS

New Caledonia is one of Australia and New Zealand's nearest neighbours, situated only 1200km east of Queensland and 1700km northwest of New Zealand's North Island. The capital Nouméa is an easy flight from Auckland, Brisbane, Melbourne and Sydney, with a maximum journey time of just three-and-a-half hours.

GETTING THERE

Aircalin is the national airline and offers 6 flights per week departing Sydney, 3 flights per week departing Brisbane and 3 flights per week departing Melbourne, with connections from Adelaide, Perth, Hobart, Darwin, Canberra and Cairns. International flights arrive into Tontouta International Airport, located 45km northwest of Nouméa.

GETTING AROUND

Domestic flights with the national domestic carrier Air Calédonie depart from Magenta Domestic Airport located 15km from Nouméa (the two airports are not connected). Flights depart several times a day to parts of the archipelago such as the Loyalty Islands and Isle of Pines.

Car rental companies abound in Nouméa providing a wonderful way to thoroughly explore the country. Driving in New Caledonia is on the right-hand side of the road, and a valid driving licence from your own country is all you need to legally drive. Roads are generally in excellent condition. It is also possible to secure car hire in the Loyalty Islands and Isle of Pines, allowing you to visit smaller communities and deserted expanses of white sandy beach.

PASSPORTS & VISAS

Australian and New Zealand passport holders do not currently require a visa to stay as a tourist for up to three months, but you must hold a passport valid at least six months beyond the date of departure from New Caledonia.

If you are a non-Australian passport holder, please check your visa requirements with the appropriate Embassy or Consular office.

CURRENCY

New Caledonia is part of the French Monetary Area and the local currency is the French Pacific Franc (XPF). ATMs are available in Nouméa, however some have a maximum weekly withdrawal limit and others are only accessible during business hours.

WEATHER

The climate is tropical. From November to March it is hot and humid with temperatures in the high 20s to low 30s. From June to August it is cooler and drier with temperatures in the low to mid 20s. You can swim and relax all year round.

PEOPLE

With the indigenous Melanesian inhabitants of New Caledonia (Kanak people) being here for over 3,000 years and the French from the 1840s, New Caledonia is a wonderful melting pot of culture and cuisine. The population is 252,000, multi-ethnic and young.

LANGUAGE

French is the official language. The Kanak people of New Caledonia speak 33 different dialects. French serves as a common language between tribes.

NOUMÉA

Nouméa is the capital city of New Caledonia, situated on the coast of the main island, Grand Terre. Several bays extend along the city, providing magnificent beaches and viewpoints. Besides its natural features, Nouméa is also home to many attractive cultural offerings for visitors.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

GORGEOUS BAYS AND SPLENDID ISLETS

Facing the lagoon, the Caledonian capital is the picture of the Pacific; a waterfront city made for wandering. The bay attracted the first Europeans to settle here, starting in 1853, and thanks largely to the beautiful beach on the Baie des Citrons and Anse Vata, it has never lost its appeal. Offshore in these bays are Îlot Maître and Îlot Canard, reached by boat in only a few minutes. Both offer an ideal setting for a day of exciting exploration or relaxed lounging.

A WEALTH OF CULTURE

Nouméa has built its Pacific identity through cultural diversity, which is reflected on your plate, but also in the architecture and attractions. Nouméa is the true artistic heart of the country. You can soak up the heritage of the city at its museums, art galleries, theatres and cinemas. Although colonial-era houses are now scarce, some buildings such as Maison Célières, Château Hagen and the old Nouméa City Hall, which now houses the city museum, have been beautifully restored.

A CITY OF PLEASURE

This city of about 100,000 inhabitants offers a range of activities to inspire you while on holiday. Facing the sea and lined with inviting beaches and islands, it is ideal for playing outdoor sports throughout the year; enjoy walking, swimming, snorkelling, windsurfing, kitesurfing, golf, tennis and more. It's also a joyful city filled with many bars, clubs and two casinos – or why not set off for a day of shopping in downtown Nouméa and Anse Vata? Three spots you can't miss: Alma Street, Sebastopol Street and the Promenade.

THE ISLE OF PINES

The southernmost of the Caledonian islands is situated almost on the Tropic of Capricorn with a latitude of 22° south. This unique geographical position affords the island a very mild climate. In 1774 James Cook set down his anchor on the coast of the Isle of Pines. It was the English admiral who gave the island its name, due to the abundance of New Caledonia pines with their characteristic slender silhouettes.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

KUTO, ORO, UPI, KANUMERA: EXCEPTIONAL BAYS

Accessible by boat or plane (and what a flight over the southern lagoon – a must!), the island has long been one of New Caledonia's most popular destinations, without ever losing its soul or authenticity.

The centre of the island is occupied by a slightly raised plateau, with its highest point, N'ga Peak (262 m), offering breathtaking views. However, Isle of Pines owes its fame to its bays above all else, from the large beaches of incredibly pure white sand, like Kuto Bay, to the extraordinarily clear turquoise water in neighbouring Kanumera Bay that lets you admire the remarkable marine flora and fauna.

THE NATURAL SWIMMING POOL OF ORO BAY: A LEGENDARY PLACE

A stone's throw from Oro Bay is one of the island's legendary locations: the natural sea water swimming pool. Separated from the bay by a simple barrier of rocks, this "swimming pool" is a gem of natural extravagance much loved by snorkelling fans. We recommend you take a walk along the slender river of sand at low tide. Quite simply, beautiful...

BOURAIL

The recent installation of a five-star hotel on the Deva estate was no accident. Since New Zealand soldiers set up a “vacation” camp at La Roche Percée in 1942, Bourail has become a top tourism spot in New Caledonia. Viewed from the sky, the lagoon and its lenticular reef, which is classified as a UNESCO World Heritage site, is simply perfection.

In the central mountain chain, the tribes of Ny, Azareu, Pothé and Bouirou offer a range of activities that combine cultural heritage (petroglyphs, sacrificial tables and a chapel), encounters such as Bouirou market, and sports including swimming, trail hiking, mountain biking and more.

A RICH HERITAGE

The village itself includes several cultural treasures, from the lighthouse at Gouaro to the old military post office, including the central magazine, which now houses the Bourail Museum. You can even see the last guillotine to be used in New Caledonia! Shortly before arriving in Bourail from Nouméa, you can stop at the New Zealand military cemetery. This serene site is an important memorial and a haven of peace.

THE DEVA ESTATE: ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL “PLAY-GROUNDS” IN NEW CALEDONIA

Overlapping the land and the ocean, the Deva Estate is set to become one of the top tourism spots in New Caledonia. You can hike, play golf, or go horseback-riding, paragliding or biking. The choices are endless.

CLASSIFIED AS A UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE, THE BOURAIL LAGOON AND ITS LENTICULAR REEF BOASTS STUNNING BEAUTY

No visit to Bourail is complete without a visit to the Roche Percée. As a true institution to the Caledonians, this coastal zone includes two of the country's symbols, the Bonhomme and the Three-bay trail, and faces an almost legendary island, Île Verte.

- Spend a couple of hours at the breathtaking Turtle Bay where you can relax by the beach or take a walk to New Caledonia's only surf beach, followed by a visit to Poe Beach.
- Horse ride through the forest and mountain range with stunning views over the lagoon.
- For adventurous hikers, follow one of these trails: 'The Giant's path', 'Forest origins to lagoon' or 'Three Bay Scenic Walk' and more!
- Fort Teremba and its prison give visitors an insight into New Caledonia's history and the hardships of repression by the colonial administration.
- Bourail Museum will give you further insight into the local history, especially the presence of US and NZ troops in the region during WWII.
- Take an excursion to Green Island and its lovely marine reserve.
- Enjoy a round of golf at the exceptional Dye Designs 18-hole course at the Sheraton New Caledonia Deva Resort & Spa, surrounded by crystal clear lagoon water and the lush forest of the Deva Domain.
- Discover the beauty of the region by helicopter or scenic plane – a must do!
- Take a boat trip on La Foa river, located south of Bourail, where your guide will take you through mangroves and past astonishing forests.

LOYALTY ISLANDS - MARÉ

Maré is an island where the singular beauty of the unspoilt landscapes echoes the traditions preserved by its inhabitants. This is a place to be discovered with the heart. The island may sometimes appear mysterious, but it also boasts an exceptionally rich history that grants it such a strong identity. Maré's character is sure to leave a lasting impression on visitors taking the time to tame it and grasp its true nature.

The most austral of the Loyalty Islands is the first to welcome the rays of the sun, the caress of the trade winds and the beginning of the yam season. It is also the highest island in the archipelago. In the south, the five superimposed geological coral layers that form the island reach to almost 130 metres.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

THE LEGENDARY WARRIOR'S LEAP IN WAKONE

Wild by nature, the island's landscapes offer the spectacle of steep cliffs, dense and dark forests, and marvellous little fine sand coves nestled between impressive rocky headlands, one of which is known in Wakone as the legendary Warrior's Leap. The natural aquarium to the south of Tadine is also sure to delight those swimming and snorkelling amongst the countless types of multi-coloured fish.

As for the beaches, each offers something special, such as the immaculate white sand of Wabao or Kurine, or the rugged terrain of Pede or Shabadran. Even globetrotting tourists hail Pede Beach as one of the world's most spectacular.

FROM THE AVOCADO FESTIVAL TO THE SEA FESTIVAL

The island's interior is not to be outdone. From the Pethoen and Medu caves to the legendary Hnaenedre fortifications, to the Bone abyss or the Wapoulanode mound, the island is full of curiosities waiting to be thoroughly explored.

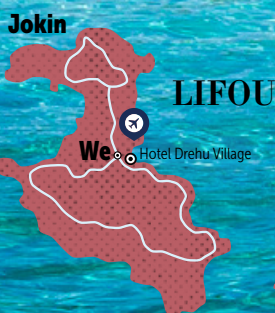

It is also worth taking the time to participate in the island's festivities. May's avocado festival, of course, but also September's tourism festival, or the sea festival held in Ménaku in early November. Maré's wealth of activities is sure to surprise, as is the warm welcome offered by the locals.

LOYALTY ISLANDS - LIFOU

With its long, white sandy beaches, caves and cliffs bathed in beautiful crystalline water, Lifou offers spectacular diving spots and hiking paths. Even before you discover the island's varied landscapes, you will be amazed by the warm nature of its open and friendly inhabitants.

Like its Loyalty Island sisters, Lifou is found around a hundred kilometres east of the Grande Terre. And like all of the dispersed isles and islets of the archipelago, Lifou is formed from raised coral covered in dense scrubland.

In addition, if you have the opportunity to travel to the island by boat, you will see it appear in the form of a low, horizontal band of green. This view forms a stark contrast with the vertical profile of the island's mountainous neighbour, the Caledonian Grande Terre. But beware! The approach to Lifou's impressive coastline can be challenging yet exciting, just as it is at Ouvéa and Maré, due to the fringing reefs and sheer cliffs.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

FROM IMMACULATE WHITE SAND TO REMARKABLE CORAL CLIFFS

Despite its apparent horizontality, Lifou soon reveals a variety of landscapes to visitors. From the immaculate white of Luengöni beach to the steep coral cliffs of Jokin, the island is full of stark contrasts.

Even more than on the archipelago's other islands, the variety of natural sites encourages visitors to discover every inch of the terrain and seabeds. Over and above the island's beaches, cliffs, bays (the most famous of which is Chateaubriand) and other coves, it is worth exploring beyond the coasts into the turquoise waters of the diving sites off the coast of the Hunëtê tribe's land.

TASTE VANILLA OF WORLD RENOWNED QUALITY!

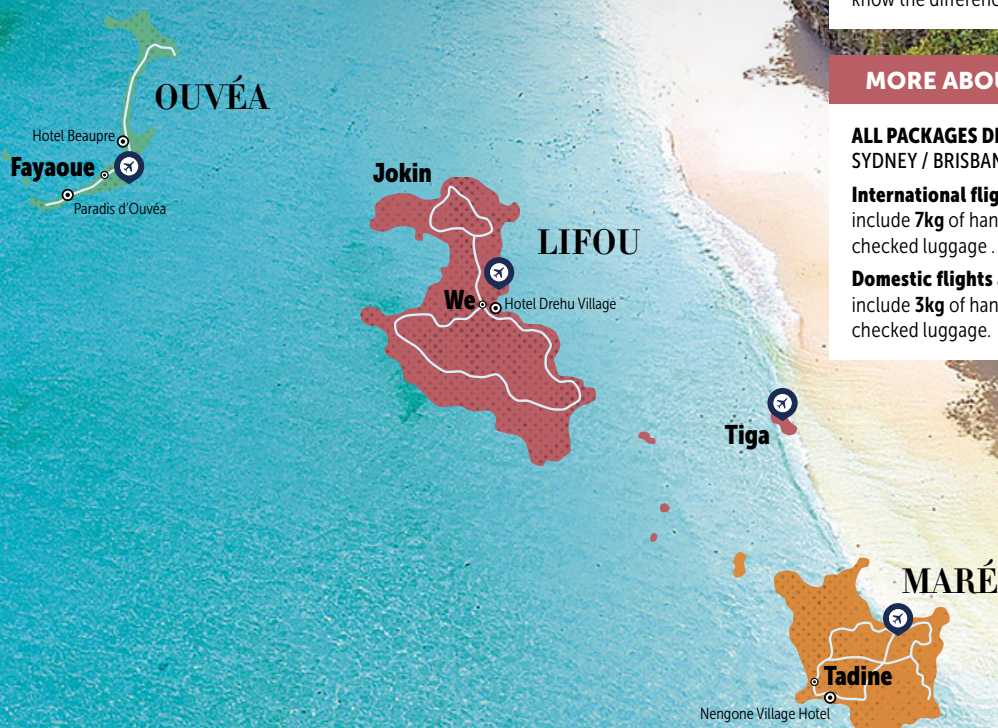

And be sure not to overlook the island's interior! A vast plain overlaying what used to be a lagoon, the land is covered in dense tropical forests perfect for hikes. You can also visit the vanilla plantations of Jozip, Mu, Muaweng or Traput. These plantations are gaining worldwide recognition for the outstanding quality of their locally produced vanilla. Try it, your tastebuds are sure to know the difference!

LOYALTY ISLANDS - OUVÉA

Set like a jewel in the middle of the crystal blue ocean and listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site, the Ouvéa atoll boasts landscapes worthy of the world's best postcards. Beyond its sparkling white sand beaches, the atoll is preserved from urban modernity. Here, it's all about the good life.

In the 1970s, the young Japanese writer Katsura Morimura fell in love with Ouvéa. Seduced by the beauty of the island and the warm welcome she received, Morimura titled her novel The Island Closest to Paradise. Set on the island, a romantic love story unfolds between a young Japanese woman and a descendant of the country. Although the writer has since passed away, her legacy continues. Young Japanese people, whether they've read the book or seen the movie of the same name, often feel a very special affection for the island. Some even come here on their honeymoon!

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL ATOLLS IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC

Every year, the enormous beach that extends almost 25km welcomes many foreign visitors on its immaculate white sand. Bordered by clear, bright water that changes colour, the beach offers a truly idyllic view. With just a little imagination, you could picture yourself at the very dawn of humanity, untouched and pure.

Ouvéa has the modest dimensions of a miniature island. It is only 35km long and is crossed by a single road winding through countless coconut palms.

THE WEST COAST

The West Coast of the mainland (Grande Terre) shows off a great variety of scenery from its northern tip down to the area surrounding Nouméa. Characterised by its stunning lagoon and large open spaces favouring cattle farming, the West Coast is also host to a rich cultural heritage.

In the northwest of the western coast, up to the Boat Pass, you will discover dry and almost moon-like land, as well as the remarkable seabed off the coast of the Poum Reef.

In addition to the natural beauty of the scenery, where ochres, pinks and oranges are mixed into the usual palette of greens, Poum, just like Koumac, offers an important mining heritage. Here the golden tourist nuggets are undoubtedly the Pilou Mine and the former mining village of Tiébaghi.

Further south, the West Coast belongs to the American Far West. This is the region of stockmen (local cowboys) and thriving agriculture. From Koumac to Poya, passing through Kaala-Gomen and Pouembout, the coast offers scenery consisting of wide and long grassy plains, and of savannas covered with paperback trees. The coastline is dominated by mangroves, often little known and yet full of natural sumptuousness.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

HEART OF VOH, THE LAPITA POTTERIES, THE PETROGLYPHS OF MONTFAOUÉ: SO MANY WORLD RENOWNED TREASURES...

At the heart of a mangrove you will discover the world-renowned Heart of Voh, a special place with a reputation that owes much to the photographer Yann Arthus-Bertrand. The area around Koné conceals a world-famous archaeological treasure. It is in fact on the site of Foué that the Lapita potteries were discovered. These potteries convey New Caledonia's cultural heritage spanning millennia; complemented by the petroglyphs of Montfaoué at Poya.

From Bourail to La Foa there is also significant heritage to be absorbed, but here it rests upon the traces left by the penitentiary administration. Fort Teremba, at Moindou, is the standout symbol of this period.

THE LENTICULAR REEF: A NATURAL WONDER AT THE HEART OF A UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE LAGOON

A registered UNESCO World Heritage site, the lagoon in the west coast zone is one of the most beautiful in New Caledonia, notably containing the sublime lenticular reef which stretches from Bourail to Moindou. And what can we say about those islands! Each one is as glorious as the next, from Green Island near Bourail to Ténia Islet near Boulouparis.

EVASION SARRAMEA HOTEL

Sarramea Accommodation

Hotel Evasion New Caledonia is a delightful eco retreat and rainforest spa in the charming tropical hideaway of Sarramea, 20 minutes inland from La Foa or an hour-and-a-half drive north of Noumea. Located beside a small stream at the end of a fertile farming valley and backed by towering mountains, this charming hotel offers ten private Classic Bungalows & one Family Bungalow in landscaped gardens with private verandas and a classical ambient interior with wooden floors and large bathrooms.

LE REFUGE DU CERF

Ouaco Accommodation

When you stay at Le Refuge du Cerf in Ouaco, you'll be within the region of Heart of Voh (Coeur de Voh). The hosts offer home-cooked cuisine with many influences and a tasting of home-made products.

LA NÉA HOTEL

Kone Accommodation

The Nea Hotel located in Kone is the first step of an amazing adventure in the North Province, where you will discover the great landscapes of the Caledonian Far West by walking, horse riding or 4WD. Comfortable, well-furnished and with an excellent restaurant, the hotel is the ideal place to discover rural activities and the vast landscapes of New Caledonia's cowboy country. The Koniambo Hotel offers 40 rooms and 8 apartments. A large variety of activities are available both at the hotel and in the surrounding area.

HIBISCUS HOTEL

Located in the heart of the North Province, Hibiscus Hotel offers fully equipped air-conditioned rooms, a magnificent peaceful garden, a swimming pool and an excellent restaurant. This boutique hotel is decorated with taste. Hibiscus Hotel offers the experience of a lifetime flying over the Heart of Voh by scenic flight. During this flight (about 50 minutes) you will discover the Heart of Voh and the lagoon with breathtaking views over the cliff and the turquoise blue waters. Discover a new world full of wonders and savour the thrilling sensation of flying in a small plane.

THE EAST COAST

The central mountain range of the mainland (Grande Terre) is a natural boundary, overlooking the very different faces of the East and West Coasts. Exposed to strong winds and therefore more humid, the eastern coast offers incredible scenery filled with delightful flora. With a population of largely Melanesian origin, the East Coast has also retained a particularly charming flavour of authenticity.

From Pouébo to Ponerihouen, the East Coast unfolds along a narrow coastal strip set between the central mountain range and the ocean, creating a spectacular panorama. Communes located along this magnificent road through Hienghène, Touho and Poindimié are real tropical gems. Highlights include Hienghène's 'La Poule' and the Tao waterfall.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

FROM HIENGHÈNE TO POINDIMIÉ VIA TOUHO: EXTRAORDINARY UNDERWATER VARIETY

The seabed in this region is one of the richest and most beautiful in New Caledonia. From the pygmy seahorse to the stunning orang-utan spider, the cohorts of manta-rays to the extraordinary variety of the corals and anemones, it is a real marvel to behold! Whether you want to scuba dive or simply take a palm-lined walk around the little island of Tibarama at Poindimié, this is a place to truly unwind and connect with nature.

Mining is also a very real presence on the East Coast. When mining first began, it profoundly influenced the destiny of the commune of Ouégoa, at the north-eastern tip of Grande Terre.

For several decades, gold and leather fever raged in this commune, which today is peaceful yet still preserves its fascinating mining heritage.

THIO: WHERE NEW CALEDONIA'S NICKEL MINING ADVENTURE BEGAN...

Further south, from Houailou to Thio, it was the nickel business that remodelled the mountain slopes, leaving its red imprint. In Thio, where the Caledonian nickel adventure began, you can visit the oldest working open-pit mine in the world. It has been in constant operation since 1880. At the heart of the village, a lovely and newly renovated museum reflects on the miners who took part in this fascinating saga.

KA WABOANA ECO LODGE

Hienghène Accommodation

With its bungalows perched on the village heights, facing the marina and the Hienghène River, the Ka Waboana Eco-Lodge offers an exceptional panoramic view. For the honeymooners and the nature lovers craving a new experience, Ka Waboana Gite invites you to discover the intimacy and magic of its 9 very comfortable bungalows, which were renovated in 2014. A stay or visit to Ka Waboana Gite is all about indulging in a true local New Caledonia experience in the heart of nature.

KOULNOUÉ VILLAGE

Hienghène Accommodation

5 hours' drive from Nouméa is the hotel Koulnoué Village (previously Club Med). It offers the comfort of 50 bungalows with a private terrace, set in a coconut plantation and all facing the lagoon. A large variety of activities are available both at the hotel and in the surrounding area: day trips, sporting activities or cultural visits around the region. The buffets at the Koulnoué Village are renowned for their abundance and variety. Try delicious local produce in a unique and unforgettable setting.

TIETI POINDIMIE HOTEL

Poindimie Accommodation

The spirit of the North in Poindimié. An authentic hotel with original architecture, combining relaxation, cultural activities and exploration on the most beautiful beach of the East Coast. Set in 2.7 hectares of parkland, abundantly dotted by coconut palms and ancient banyans, the bungalows are distinguished by the strikingly original design of their wood-tiled roofs, shaped like the exotic fruit of the Barringtonia tree. In the heart of lush valleys, facing a UNESCO World Heritage listed lagoon, the Poindimie area is a must-see for any visitor exploring New Caledonia.

THE FAR NORTH COAST

Covering the northern tip of Grande Terre, this remote region has a multitude of beautiful landscapes, caves, mines, beaches and islets, while the mountains are rich and dense. The area is considered one of the world's Top 5 for fly-fishing. A mining region, this is an ideal place to learn more about New Caledonia's mineral wealth, one of the country's top economic contributors and a large influence in the development of the history of New Caledonia over the centuries. The hot and dry climate is perfect for relaxing on pristine beaches, with lots of beautiful bays to visit and enjoy a leisurely picnic while exploring the local area.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

VISIT THE FORMER MINING VILLAGE OF TIEBAGHI – A PRE-SERVED AND RESTORED MINING VILLAGE IN OPERATION FROM 1875 TO 1964.

- The Pouébo Mission Church dates back to 1874 and is worth visiting for its beautiful stained glass.
- Stop for a picnic at the pretty village of Poum nestled along a coastal strip between two stunning bays.
- The area of Balade is where Captain Cook landed in 1774 and holds great importance to New Caledonia's history.
- Head to nearby Mahamate Beach where Cook's men observed an eclipse of the sun almost 250 years ago.
- The Bélep Islands are located 50km beyond the northern tip of the mainland. An archipelago, whose main island, Art, is home to a few thousand people across seven different tribes.

MALABOU BEACH HOTEL

Malabou Beach Hotel is located in the far north of Grand Terre, by the beach and beautiful lagoon on sumptuous Néhoué Bay. It boasts an outdoor pool, restaurant, bar and tennis court. Kayaks are available for hire and guests can enjoy marine excursions, picnics on the islets, walks in the dry forest, mountain biking and fishing trips.

THE GREAT SOUTH

The Great South, comprising the Mont-Dore and Yaté municipalities, is the most symbolic region for New Caledonia's three main colours: blue, green and red. From the rainforest to the mining lands there are a thousand shades of green, while the ocean offers a dazzling palette of blues. But if one colour dominates the Great South, it is the specific red of its earth.

YOUR INSIDER EXPERIENCES

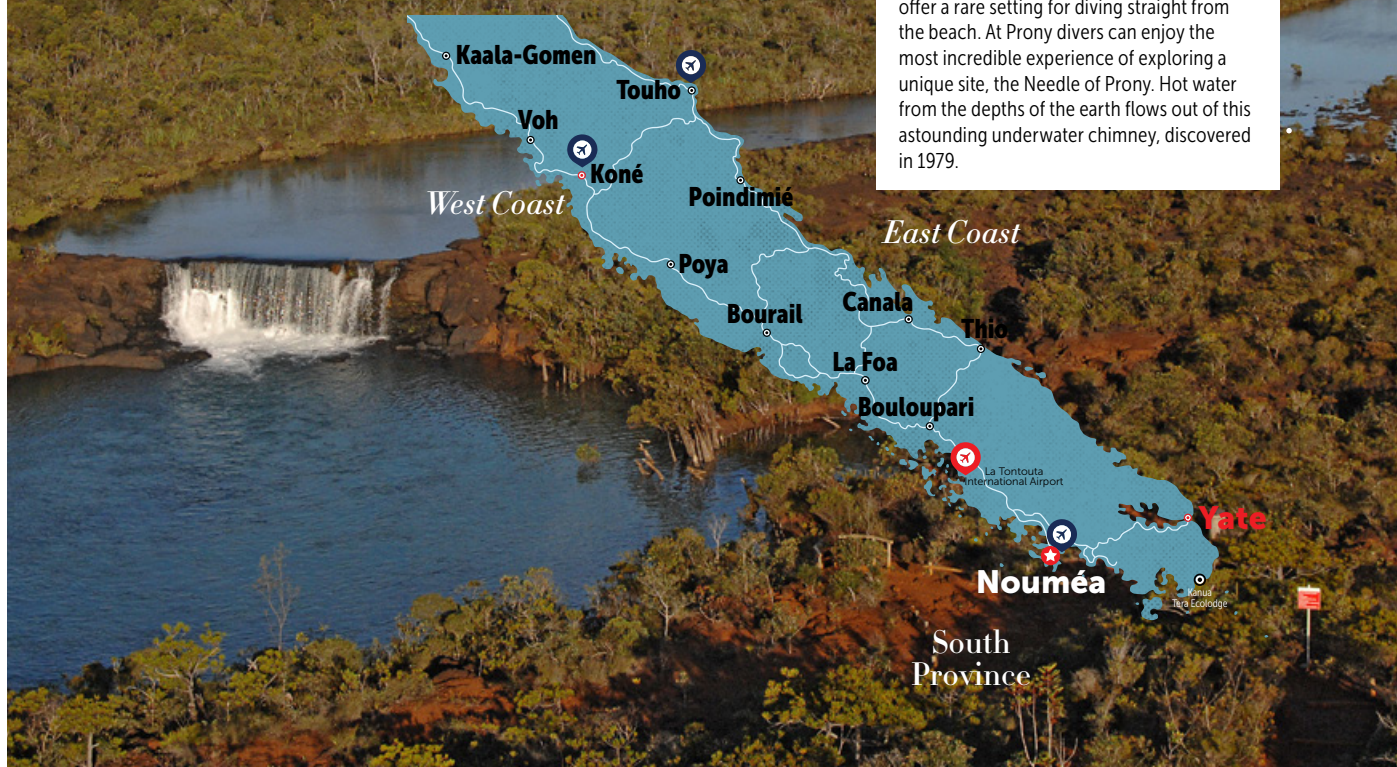

FROM THE BLUE RIVER PARK TO THE N'DUA RESERVE...

In addition to this immense park, the Great South is brimming with other nature reserves. The Madeleine waterfalls include one of the most beautiful botanic trails in the area, while the loops of nearby Netcha offer the most stunning mountain biking trails in the country. On the front of the western coast, the N'Dua reserve offers visitors a colourful spectacle and allows remote observation of the Humpback whales reproducing in the area between June and September.

THE NEEDLE OF PRONY: A UNIQUE UNDER-WATER CHIMNEY!

The Great South is a hiker's paradise. Whether climbing Mont-Dore, whose imposing mass dominates the lagoon at the entrance of Nouméa, or taking on the GR1 trail from Dumbéa to Prony, every walker will find their perfect trail!

On the East Coast, several fringing reefs offer a rare setting for diving straight from the beach. At Prony divers can enjoy the most incredible experience of exploring a unique site, the Needle of Prony. Hot water from the depths of the earth flows out of this astounding underwater chimney, discovered in 1979.

KANUA TERA ECOLODGE

This small ecolodge, set between lush tropical forest and a UNESCO World Heritage listed lagoon, breathes an atmosphere of calm and tranquility.
